FOREWORD

SHADOWED BY THE MAJESTY OF MOUNT TIMPANOGOS IS A HAVEN OF LEARNING WHICH WE CALL OUR CAMPUS, A SPOT MADE BEAUTIFUL BY THE GLORY OF NATURE AND THE ENDEAVOR OF MAN. WE HOPE THAT THIS BOOK WILL HELP TO ENSHRINE IT IN YOUR HEART AS IT IS, SIDE BY SIDE WITH YOUR HOPES FOR WHAT IT WILL BECOME.

THE COUGAR

STANDING GUARD OVER 'V' TRADITIONS IS THE GROWLING COUGAR, DISPLAYING IN HIS GREAT CAT'S BODY ALL THE STRENGTH, COURAGE, AND VIRILITY FOR WHICH HE WAS (HOSEN AS THE EMBLEM OF THE 'Y'. THE CAMPUS BOASTED TWO LIVE COUGARS IN 1930 WHEN CLEO AND TARBO RESIDED IN REGAL STATE IN A CAGE ON MAESER HILL. THEIR REGIME WAS SHORT, BUT THE REGIME OF THE SYMBOLIC 'Y' COUGAR WILL ENDURE AS LONG AS DOES THE CAMPUS WHICH IS HIS DOMINION.

BOOK

CAMPUS

THE old forked tree on the winding hill walk, the traditional promenade along Lovers' Lane, the sound of the old Y bell--all give that flavor of romance which makes our campus unforget-table. We delight in its green coolness in summer, its frosty beauty in winter, and its moonlight enchantment in spring; and we cherish the rich traditions which are associated with it.

ADMINISTRATION

In wise jurisdiction over our campus are the administrative leaders, men and women in whom we place our confidence and trust because they have proved their ability and their desire to guide us. They have set for us a star of achievement and character to which we may hopefully hitch our wagon.

PRESIDENT HEBER J. GRANT

Such a man as President Grant we are proud to respect and admire and to claim as a leader. Nationally and locally prominent in religious and educational fields, for eighteen years he has held his high position as president of the church of which Brigham Young University is a part.

DR. FRANKLIN L. WEST

To take the place of John A. Widtsoe, Franklin L. West was appointed this year as Church Commissioner of Education. He has a broad understanding of youth and its problems, as well as of the broader phases of education. We welcome him as a leader worthy to take his place in the administration of our university.

PRESIDENT FRANKLIN S. HARRIS

A brilliant mind, a love of scholarship and fair play, and an indefatigable zeal for the welfare of the university have made Franklin S. Harris loved and respected by all who know him. Under his capable leadership the "Y" has grown and developed into an institution we all point to with pride and affection.

TREASURER

In the Treasurer's office, which is the financial center for both school and student body funds, Treasurer Holt and his assistants, Carma Ballif and Barr Miller, keep the financial wheels of the institution running smoothly.

SUPERINTENDENT OF BUILDINGS

As custodian of the campus, B. T. Higgs continues to hold sway among "his boy's", with his constant supervision of their work on the campus and his weekly inspirational talks. He is ably assisted by Karl Miller.

SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

THE responsible position held by Kiefer Sauls involves not only the multiple duties of secretary to the president, but also the task of handling all purchases of the institution and of the student body.

REGISTRAR

WITH a registration well over two thousand, Registrar Hayes and his office staff are kept busy registering incoming students, issuing quarterly grades, preparing transcripts--and distributing lost mail.

DEAN OF WOMEN

NETTIE NEFF SMART

THIS is a milepost in the career of our foster mother, Dean Nettie Neff Smart. For ten years, Mrs. Smart has been adviser and sympathizer to nearly one thousand young girls each year. She has a great many duties and responsibilities in coping with the problems of so many people. But she enjoys the association of the girls, and they, in turn, feel that she exerts a real inspirational influence in their university life.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

CARL F. Eyring, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences for the past eleven years, has gained all the requisites of a most sincere and understanding man. He is fully equipped with the personal power to help students in his college to gain a broad and liberal education that will be their guide as they establish themselves in our complex civilization. Through his interested efforts, the college offers courses which will lead to advanced opportunity for all students.

CARL F. EYRING

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Amos N. Merrill, Dean of the College of Education, is exemplar in his field of training teachers, supervisors, and executives of the school room. His administration of the department has helped to make it the most popular in the school. He endorses his instruction with a fine philosophy of life which fits education students to their profession. Promotion of ideal educational conditions at the Y is one of the many interests of Dean Merrill.

AMOS N. MERRILL

GRADUATE SCHOOL

A. C. LAMBERT

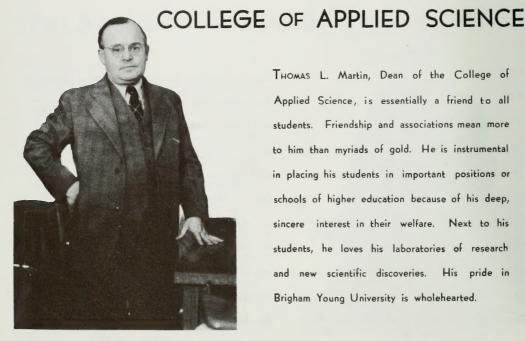

Asael C. Lambert, Dean of the Graduate School, has distinguished himself as a leader, instructor, and adviser of those learned students who have not, as yet, reached their goal through graduation, but are going on to a higher degree. He instills in these students the spark of research and independent study which he himself possesses. His encouragement and concern give these students greater things for which to work. The Graduate School is rapidly increasing under his magnetic influence.

COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS

DEAN Gerrit de Jong, Jr., of the College of Fine Arts, is fully appreciative of the relation of fine arts to an abundant life. His greatest desire is to reveal opportunities to those students whose talents and inclinations have led them into this department. He gives really fundamental instruction and lifts the students high through the creative work he offers. An extensive background of study and travel enables him to give others much of the love of arts which he possesses.

GERRIT DE JONG, JR.

T. L. MARTIN

THOMAS L. Martin, Dean of the College of Applied Science, is essentially a friend to all students. Friendship and associations mean more to him than myriads of gold. He is instrumental in placing his students in important positions or schools of higher education because of his deep, sincere interest in their welfare. Next to his students, he loves his laboratories of research and new scientific discoveries. His pride in Brigham Young University is wholehearted.

COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

HERALD R. CLARK

DEAN Herald R. Clark, of the College of Commerce, is that affable and humorous professor who is engaged in training students to cope with those ever-present financial difficulties. The courses in his department best fit the students for efficiency in office administration and analyzing business conditions and demands made in the industrial and financial world. Dean Clark's congenial attitude is an incentive for the commercial representatives of the school to stamp their names in industrial history.

SUMMER SCHOOL

HUGH M. Woodward, Dean of the Summer Session, has shown his remarkable ability and versatile character by his constant advancement, not only in educational positions, but in the personal esteem of those who know him. This year he has gained new honor as President of the Utah Education Association. Brilliant and forceful, he makes associates and strangers feel his worth. During a period of eleven years in which he has served as Dean of the Summer Session, his students have enjoyed his leadership and splendid instruction, both at Provo and Alpine.

HUGH M. WOODWARD

EXTENSION DIVISION

New, spacious quarters in the Brimhall building raised the morale of the Extension staff last fall. They enabled a more efficient organization of the duties of the bureaus of Evening Classes, Home Study, Visual Instruction, and Lectures and Entertainments. The News Bureau also centers in these offices.

Another change came at mid-year when Dr. Lowry Nelson resigned as director and was succeeded by Harrison R. Merrill, professor of journalism. This appointment strengthens a natural union between the division of journalism and publicity activities, which have long been associated with the Extension Division.

FACULTY

THE men and women pictured on these pages have been carefully chosen to guide and direct the intellectual and spiritual life of the students who come to the "Y". They rank high in scholarship--representing two score universities and colleges in America and Europe--and high in the affection and esteem of the student body.

STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

And these you have chosen to lead you--not in haughty splendor, nor yet in awful majesty, but with the judgment and easy friendliness for which they were selected to bear the student banners. The whole campus is their domain, but their decisions are made at the new student body offices in the Maeser Memorial.

BETH PAXMAN Vice-president VIRGIL WEDGE President MARGRET BOYER Secretary

STUDENT OFFICERS

Here they are---Virge, Beth, and Margaret---the three wisest guys in a whole school of Y's guys. Commencing with the finest orientation program ever witnessed at the B. Y. U. and continuing throughout the year to make new innovations and improvements, these three have maintained a standard that has made 1935-36 the banner year in the history of the institution. It is our hope as they leave us, that the success they have attained here will prove only an indication of the achievements that are to follow them throughout their lives.

STUDENT COUNCIL

ALONG with consistent efforts to raise funds for the establishment of a stadium house, the student council has found time to oversee many important changes and additions to the university. Chiefamong these has been the purchase of a trophy case in which to preserve the awards which B. Y. U. has received. This council has seen the introduction of a master of ceremonies into assembly programs. It also has been able to extend to the student councils of other schools, true B. Y. U. hospitality as well as be entertained upon the various other campi.

ASSOCIATED WOMEN STUDENTS

A. W. S. MIGHT easily mean "Always Winning Something"--that something ranging from winning the hearts of Freshie girls to winning the prize for crowding the greatest number of activities into one year. Through the efforts of the Associated Women Students, every new girl in school has a "big sister"; entertainments have been provided for unaffiliated groups and commuters; the A.W.S. officers have attended a national convention; one or more splendid parties have been held each quarter; and a sizeable sum of money has been contributed to the establishment of a field house.

PUBLIC SERVICE BUREAU

MEET the least-publicised, hardest-working quintet in school! This year the Public Service Bureau has responded every day to an average of three or more telephone calls and has sent over 600 students to present 185 programs in all parts of Utah and into Idaho and Wyoming. Under the able direction of Ann Clayson, with the assistance of Webb, Ab, Elaine, and Lorna, the bureau has proved to be an excellent advertisement for the B.Y.U. as well as a splendid medium for displaying some of the finest talent ever grouped in one institution.

MASTERS AND GRADUATES

To those who realize that education has barely begun at the Commencement exercises; to those who desire to know, out of the whole sphere of human experience, much about one particular phase of endeavor; to those who have found infinite joy in education because of its enrichment of the distinctly human power to think---We extend congratulations.

SENIORS

Arrayed in caps and gowns, looking far more sober and dignified than they really are, the class of '36 will march across the boards this spring to receive their sheepskins--symbols of completed college life. They will carry with them, as they leave the "Y", memories of four glorious years. They will leave behind them, as the Senior Project, a sizeable contribution to the new Field House.

JUNIORS

IMPORTING palmetto leaves and Spanish moss, the Class of '37, treated the B. Y. U. student body to a delightful "Evening in the old South" at their annual promenade. Transferring their activity, then, from the sublime to the ridiculous, the men of this class showed the Seniors that credit hours had little to do with whisker-raising by producing moustaches rivalled only by those of Buffalo Bill, himself. The Juniors qualified themselves to act as next year's leaders of Brigham Young University.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomore class proceeded to hold their Loan Fund Ball on Friday, December 13th--and curiously enough made a splendid success of it! Apparently using this as a standard, the class continued to flaunt custom and tradition by proving (especially to erring Frosh) that they could be as dignified and severe as Seniors and at the same time be one of the liveliest, most active classes on the campus.

FBESHMEN

FRESHMEN this year have shown that they have uses other than acting as the butt for senior jokes. They have produced a football team of outstanding ability, several champion debators, and two basketball teams. Under the direction of Charles Fletcher, class president, the 1936 "Freshie Day" surpassed any of its predecessors. All in all, this group of nearly a thousand students has welded itself into one of the most compact, progressive units on the campus.

CAMPUS LIFE

A college campus is a beautiful place. A college campus with people on it is an interesting place. OUR college campus with US on it is the most fascinating place in the world, we unanimously agree. So here we have haphazard shots of OUR campus with US on it.

REPRESENTATIVE STUDENTS

THE university's representative students were selected for the Banyan by popular vote, each student submitting the names of four men and four women who he thought most splendidly represented the school in scholarship, personality, and democratic spirit. Of the one hundred and eight women and one hundred and fifty-two men named, the ten highest of each were selected for final voting. Eight of these were chosen as the most representative.

All important phases of "Y" life are represented by these students--the A. W. S., music, drama, Public Service, athletics, class officer, student body officer, and the Junior Prom.

Those who received their honor indeed deserve the laurels for outstanding student achievement, and with them the appreciation of the "Y".

Photographs by Ecker, Salt Lake City

PUBLICATIONS

SIDE by side in the Maeser Memorial are the new quarters of the campus publications, just close enough for neighborly (?) associations. Unknown to the public eye, each day is enacted a drama of stirring strife and manly warfare between the two offices, the bone of contention being either the rightful proprietorship of the telephone or the degraded art of the Y News which attempts to depict Banyan staff members.

MUSIC

FROM all parts of the country come young, hopeful musicians; good, bad, mediocre. Under the skillful direction of Professors Sauer, Robertson, Condie and Summerhays they find their niche in the great symphony of the "Y". With their training, their desires fulfilled, they help to give the rest of the student body something of the melody their hearts have captured.

HANSEL AND GRETEL

RICHARD P. CONDIE--Director

STEALING the show with her wicked laugh, the witch who eats children kept the audience in suspense while Hansel and Gretel gave a real interpretation of their parts in Humperdink's Famous opera, "Hansel and Gretel." Accomplished soloists and a selected school chorus, aided by dancers from the physical education department, were impressive in their portrayal of the traditional characters in the old German fairy tale.

BACH CHORUS

THE chorus has delighted music lovers with several performances of Bach cantatas under the direction of Margaret Summerhays. During the past three years, it has made us conscious of three more glorious gifts of the great master composer. The singers' love and understanding of his work was shown in the cantatas, "Sleepers Wake", "Jesu, Priceless Treasure," and in the touching "Saint John's Passion."

LADIES GLEE

"LIFT Thine Eyes," the first chorus presented during the year, suggests the ideal in singing which Miss Summerhays instills into the hearts of her students. With her inspiration, the ladies have lifted their hearers into delightful participation in the sweet experience of music. The Bach chorus assisted them in entertaining Leadership Week guests; and their spring concert was assisted by a ladies string quartette.

FLORENCE TODD, Accompanist

THE MESSIAH

Honoring the time-old custom of presenting the Messiah at Christmas, appreciative students and townspeople once again filled the L. D. S. tabernacle to hear the university chorus interpret the world-famous oratorio of Handel. Professor Richard P. Condie directed the chorus in the place of Professor Franklin Madsen who inaugurated the oratorio at the university and who is away this year. Solo and group singing was exceptional in its rendition.

Bach's "Passion According to Saint John," was presented during Easter season by the music department under the direction of LeRoy J. Robertson. Beginning with the mighty "Lord, Our Redeemer," and closing with the tranquil "Rest Here in Peace," the story of Christ's betrayal was beautifully expressed. The augmented Bach chorus and the University Symphony Orchestra carried the difficult ensemble while Professor Richard Condie sang the role of the narrator.

ART

VERSATILITY! With smudged faces, dirty smocks, oil brushes and paint pots, the Art department carries on its daily job of answering calls for banner signs informing the students of "Y" activities, colorful costumes for our plays and operas, scenery for performances, paintings, show-card coloring, and effective artistry for the "Y" dancing parties.

APPLIED ART

PROF. E. H. EASTMOND

SEEMINGLY by remote control, a colorful pageant was produced in New York this year, through the combined efforts of the Y Applied Art division and the art alumni.

The department added another success to its growing list by presenting the pageant, "Wings of Western Progress", at the university Summer School at Alpine last summer.

The Studio Guild, art fraternity, was reorganized during the winter to further this extension work and to enlarge the well-known Y art exhibits. The outstanding exhibit presented during the 1936 Leadership Week was typical of their creative ability.

FINE ART

PLANNING to challenge the interest and increase the art appreciation of all students, the Fine Arts department chose for its project this year the purchase of several choice paintings by outstanding artists.

Under the direction of Professor B. F. Larsen, the art library has been added to, both in quality and quantity through the purchase of the two large Indian murals by Minerva Tichert; the portraits of President Heber J. Grant and President F. S. Harris by Lee Richards; a French painting by Augustus Bon Heur; two paintings from the Springville exhibition and a copy of a painting from the Metropolitan Museum.

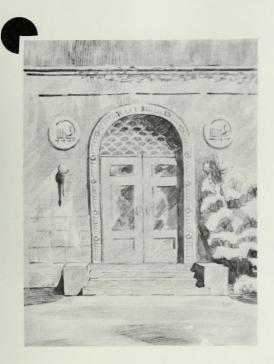

PROF. B. F. LARSEN

During the hot summer months, B. Y. students refresh themselves through the creation of artistry in landscape painting, stimulated by the atmosphere of Aspen Grove. Professor B. F. Larson directs the art students at this six weeks session.

Some of the finest work of the year is produced under the laftuence of Professor Larson and the Alpine grandeur.

DRAMA AND FORENSICS

To us it is a finished product. Beautifully timed, convincingly portrayed, startling in its lighting effects . . . but before the curtain comes up, before the play could be presented . . . hours of weary practice; stage hands frantically trying new scenery, new lights; directors worried with new talent; actors trembling with "stage-fright" . . . all for one night of glory.

WITH a "no-star" system as their policy and new costumes, lighting system, and stage properties, the Speech department has excelled in drama presentation.

In the play "Counselor At Law", a new star was discovered in G. Ott Romney; in "Peter Ibbetson," new shadow lighting was effected; and nearly fifty high schools and junior colleges participated in the Seventh Annual Speech Tournament and Drama Festival.

A speech clinic and practice room with offices near have been added enabling the department to equip a great number of students to compete in the dramatic world.

THE annual autumn Rocky Mountain Senior College Tournament provided the first active inter-collegiate competition for Brigham Young University debators this year. A women's team, Darlene Owens and Madge Jacobs; men's team, Marlowe Wootton and Clifford Young, and a men's Parliamentary team comprised of William Reeder, Vernon Davies and Otis Burton represented the "Y". Welby Young and Thomas Acree participated in extemporaneous and oratory respectively.

An innovation in Rocky Mountain forensic activity was made when twelve student legislators from B. Y. U. met with twelve members each from both the U. S. A. C. and the U. of U. in the Chamber of the House of Representatives at the State Capitol Building.

FORENSICS

THE debate season was climaxed when two teams representing The University traveled to California to participate in the Pi Kappa Delta Province of the Pacific Invitational Tournament held at the "U" of Redlands. The men's team comprised of Clifford Young and Edwin Clyde, and Inez Blazzard and Madge Evans as women's team, made a very creditable showing. Professor Elmer Miller of the Debate Council accompanied the teams.

Six Junior Varsity debate teams, three extemporaneous speakers and two orators took part in the annual Utah-Idaho Forensic Tournament held at Salt Lake City early in the spring quarter, gaining much valuable experience.

MEN'S SPORTS

A point or two either way was the margin of victory and defeat as Brigham Young University swept through its athletic program for 1935-36. Whether the Cougars won or lost, their team spirit and fine sportsmanship were the features of every contest. The "Y" teams finished among the leaders in all minor sports as well as football, basketball and track.

C. J. Hart, Fred Dixon, G. Ott Romney, Edwin Kimball, John Smith

COACHES

"BUILDING for the future" was the comment around the campus when Eddie Kimball and John Smith were added to the coaching staff. Kimball was given complete charge of Freshman athletics. Smith, a former all-American, helped Coach Romney with the varsity football squad. "Chick" Hart continued his work as director of intramural activities while Fred Dixon was coaching tennis and helping in the physical education department. Amiable Aubert Cote developed a strong wrestling team.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Only two first team members will not be returning to fight for positions on next year's eleven. A score of outstanding freshmen, however, will be anxiously competing for places. Coach Ott's Cougars, mostly sophomores, won three conference games and lost four while winning one inter-sectional clash this year. Two of the games lost by B. Y. U. were with the two strong teams of the conference, University of Utah and Utah Aggies.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

FRESHMAN competition with other colleges was dropped this year due to a new Rocky Mountain Conference ruling. To offset this, an intra-university football league was formed to give the boys the needed playing experience. The Kittens were divided into two squads, the Browns and the Golds. These two teams and the Junior Varsity formed the league. While the Junior Varsity won first, a picked team from the Freshmen squad had little difficulty in handing the Jayvees a 9-0 setback.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

AFTER a successful trip into Colorado and Nebraska, where they won three games and lost three, the Cougars settled down during the Christmas holidays and took four straight games from Drake, Nebraska and Fresno State. Their early season's showing made the "Y" the favorite to give the champion Aggies the most trouble in retaining their title. Brigham Young hit their stride early in the season, and the strain showed in the last six games. However, a win over the Aggies in the last series placed the "Y" team in second position of Western Division basketball.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

ONE of the biggest and finest Freshman squads in years faced Coach Eddie Kimball as the basketball season opened. The squad was cut several times during the winter quarter. Although the new conference rule kept the Kittens out of local league competition, they demonstrated what could be expected of them as varsity timber when they romped off with the Junior Intermountain A. A. U. title. In the Salt Lake tourney, the greenlings defeated some of the strongest independent teams in the state.

VARSITY TRACK

THE B. Y. U. track team, Rocky Mountain champions for 1935, looks good to repeat its triumph this season. In the first meet of the season, these track men defeated the University of Utah by a score of 78 to 62. Particularly outstanding in the powerful squad are Captain Schofield in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the 220 yard low hurdles, and 110 high hurdles; Cannon in the discus, Verney in the shot and hammer, Brooks in the 440 yard run, Taylor in the half mile, Golding in the mile, Andrews in the two mile, Campbell in the javelin, and the Gourley brothers, George and Lee, in the pole vault.

Eastmond, Holt, Stoddard, Snow, Stephens, Ballard.

VARSITY TENNIS

COACH Fred (Buck) Dixon turned out another good varsity squad this season. The team, composed of Grant Holt, George Stoddard, Kirk Stephens, Gordon Snow, Howard Ballard, and Tom Eastmond, is headed by co-captains Stoddard and Stephens. After a shaky start in which they lost five matches to the University of Utah, the team came back to sweep their series with the U.S.A.C. At the time of this writing, the team appears to be a serious threat to the supremacy of Utah in the Western division of the Rocky Mountain Conference.

WRESTLING

B. Y. U. lost most of its dual meets this year by close decisions. The fall of Merrill Croft and Golden Taylor, conference champions of last year, came as a surprise to sport dopesters. Croft and Taylor came back later in the season to win their matches in the Intermountain Olympic tryouts. Albert Clark, 118 pound ace, was the only Cougar to win a conference title. James Lambert, Herman Rowley and Carlyle Lambert took second places in their weights.

Rapid strides have been made in elevating intramural athletics to the prominence that they hold on other campi.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

CLIMAXING a successful intramural basketball schedule, which was comprised of two social unit leagues and a club league, was the round-robin tournament. This tourney, entered by the two top teams in each league, was won by the powerful Tausig social unit team of the Blue League.

INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL CHAMPIONS

Outstanding among the intramural activities, sponsored by the school during the year, was the autumn social unit softball tournament. The Bricker unit, presenting a veteran, well-balanced team with plenty of fight and coordination, finally emerged the victors after a heated campaign.

DALE SCHOFIELD

HUGH CANNON

OLYMPIC MEN

THE two outstanding track men of the university this year are Captain Dale Schofield and Hugh Cannon. These men are candidates for the Olympic team of the United States,

Schofield is national champion in the 200 meter low hurdles. At the Y invitational meet he defeated Miller of U. C. L. A., one of the country's best hurdlers, in the 400 meter low hurdles. He also excels in the 110 yard high hurdles. With his hurdling ability, he is one of the best sprinters in the Rocky Mountain Conference.

Cannon is one of the best discus men in the nation today. His best is slightly over one hundred sixty-one feet.

Already this year he has thrown the discus over one hundred fifty feet.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

COEDS at the "Y" find enticing ways of keeping physically and mentally fit through activity in women's sports. Tournaments and inter-class competition proves the mettle of those who take athletics seriously, while freshmen and upperclassmen alike find happy times on moonlight hikes, skating and skiing parties, and autumn and spring carnivals.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

"Every girl in activity." Whether she is interested in leisure-time sport or in earning points toward a W. A. A. symbol or sweater, every girl on the campus is offered a wide variety of fascinating sports and gay frolics in the W. A. A. program.

Beginning with the founder's Day tournament in the fall, and continuing until the Posture Parade in the spring, more than seven hundred girls participated in the activities under the direction of Laura Banner, president, assisted by Ellen Jackson, Oma LeSueur, Yvonne Henderson, and Laura Chadwick. Points toward the symbol and sweater awards were earned through inter-class tournaments, intramurals, and by individual or social unit participation.

DANCE CLUB

THESE advanced students of the dance find creative art in its most inviting form in dance composition and production. The group is under the direction of Aline C. Smith with Anna Lou Peterson acting as president. For the dance revue, presented every spring by the physical education department, the dance club creates, directs, and stages dance compositions which truly depict the excellence of their abilities.

Lorean Lewis, Laerne Jones, Zella Peterson, Laura Banner, Ellen Jackson, Oma Le Sueur

BEAUX ARTS BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

THE climax of a very tense social unit basketball tourney was marked by the victory of the Beaux Arts over the Em Anon unit. By virtue of this victory the Beaux Arts not only won first place in the tournament, but gained permanent possession of the trophy awarded by Sears, Roebuck Company to the social unit winning this tourney for three consecutive years.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

For the third consecutive year this basketball team, now juniors, has captured the honors in the most hotly contested of all tournaments in the women's intramural program, the inter-class series. Team play under the most severe competition has marked their successes during all three years, especially in the very narrow victory over the freshman team of this year.

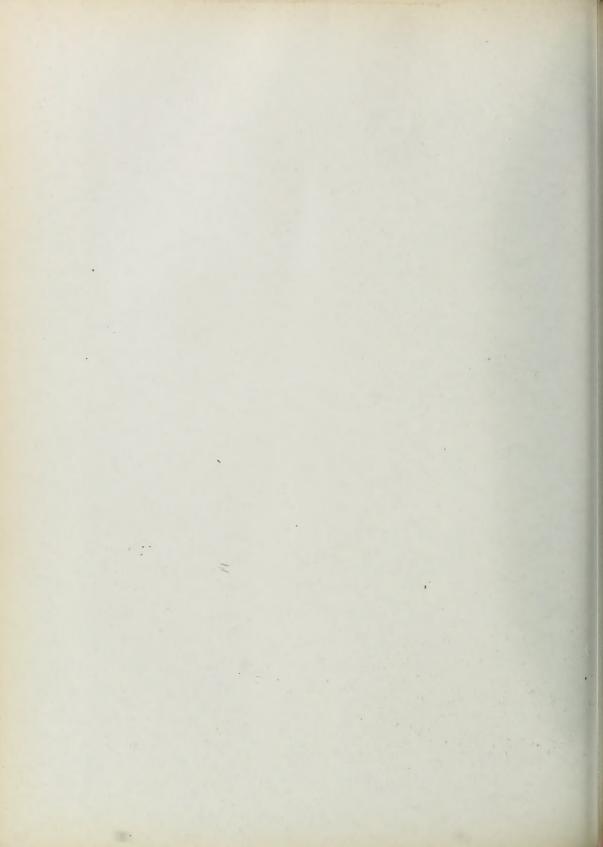

ALINE C. SMITH
WILMA JEPPSON

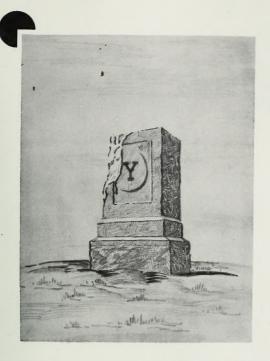

EMINATING an alluring spirit of friendliness and enthusiasm, Professor Wilma Jeppson shows her genuine interest in the feminine sports progam. Aline C. Smith, instructor in dancing, heartily supports her in the belief that "the physical education program should include every girl in activity." Together they have assisted the W. A. A. officers tremendously in sponsoring a very successful program of women's sports.

Despite students and faculty members who, happening to find themselves in the Maeser basement and observing the frenzied activities of busy staff members remark, "Oh! You do printing here", the "Y" Press is rapidly acquiring a national reputation through its pioneering in the field of college offset lithographic printing. The "Press" received its initial impetus in the summer of 1935 when President Harris and Purchasing Agent Sauls ordered the installation of Multilith equipment. Since then the quanity and quality of Brigham Young University has improved until recently a Wisconsin gentlemen, upon seeing a copy of the 1935 Banyan remarked, "Darn clever, these Mormons".

A Machine that went to College PRODUCES BANYAN"...

During the school year, Multilith and Multigraph have performed their assignments in a manner to make everyone connected with Brigham Young University proud of their output. From first-year students to the President of the Institution, all have in some way been influenced by the product of "University Press."

Special textbooks modernized and brought upto-date...lesson and work sheets...examination questions . . . athletic and entertainment announcements, invitations, tickets and programs . . . business and faculty record and report forms . . . student publications . . . University advertising and sales promotion material . . . these and more have been possible because of Multilith and Multigraph speed, quality, convenience, simplicity and economy.

Excellent training has been provided for students working on production. This knowledge will prove valuable in many ways when these young people enter business life. There are thousands of Multiliths and Multigraphs in use all over the country. Just as they enable Brigham Young University to save money on printed material, so do Multilith and Multigraph save and make money for executives in every business and noncommercial field.

BRIGHAM YOUNG UNIVERSITY Studio and Photography Department

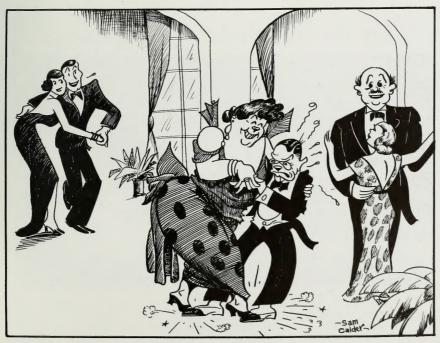

The art of photography plays the biggest part in our year-book in reproducing the features of friends in such a way that we may see them fifty years from now as they were at college. For the first time, the university photography department has attempted this work with Joe Boel as chief "picture-taker" assisted by George Streble, Vern Hales, Dwight Young, Otto Done and LeGrande Lewis in the dark room, and Jean Pratt, Gwen Wagstaff and Fern Broadhead in the secretarial department.

Molloy-Made cover quality is still serving the best books in the land . . . just as it did in the pioneer days of the modern yearbook. The cover on this volume is a physical expression of that fine quality and workmanship which the Molloy trade-mark has always symbolized.

To The Bunyon Queen

The Bunyon queen shall surely shine, By sudden blasts, or slow decline. On she toils from day to day Her social comforts drop away--

She is not fair to outward view Her lovliness they never knew. Her looks are sometimes coy and cold my heart leaps up when I behold fier eyes as stars of twillight fair, Like a sunset too, her disky hair, Pointing upward to the sky, Luring, calling, passers by.

I saw her again from a different view. As maybe you have seen her too, Like something fashioned in a dream This lovely girl, the Bunyon Queen.

As the Seniors march down University Avenue and down the aisle of commencement of life with its many opportunities, this school year becomes history. May this volume of the 1936 Banyan be a reminder and help relive the many joyous days spent here at the "Y." In it we have tried to include those things which you will want to remember.

I am indebted greatly to the following for their services rendered: The many diligent workers on the staff; the untiring efforts of the University Press; the design of the book and technical supervision by Ralph Jenson; the assistance of Dr. Hales and the photo department; Glen Potter and Fae Cottam for their art contributions; the Provo Book Bindery for the binding; and the David J. Molloy Company for the cover.
